

ARTICLE 26. VESTED RIGHTS

This Ordinance and any of the provisions hereof are not intended and shall not be construed to establish any vested right in or on behalf of any person, firm or corporation in and to the continuation of any particular use, district, zoning classification or any activity therein and each of such matters are hereby declared to be subject to such later amendments to this Ordinance as may be necessary to appropriate for the further preservation and protection of public health, safety, welfare and morals.